Magazine Monday 8/29

1.Browse through pp. 3-5
2. Choose ONE of these THREE headline news stories in this weeks' Up Front Magazine:
A. "What's at Stake?" (6-9)
B. "Dreaming Big in the New India" (12-15)
C. "Pearl Harbor" (18-21)

Assignment for each:

A. "What's at Stake?"
Answer this question in a minimum of 6-8 sentences: After reading the article, what do you think is at stake in Election 2016? Write a paragraph describing what you see as the key election issues and why. USE SPECIFIC EVIDENCE from the article to support your response.

B. "Dreaming Big in the New India"
Answer these questions in a minimum of 6-8 sentences: What factors helped shape Varsha's ambition to become a place officer? How do Varsha's goals compare with those her father has for her? What does this contrast suggest about the way Indian society is changing? Based on the article, do you think Varsha will ever realize her dream?

C. "Pearl Harbor"
Answer these questions in a minimum of 6-8 sentences: What are some of the factors which may have contributed to the current warm relationship between the U.S. and Japan? What do you think Motaotsu Sakurai of New York's Japan Society means when he says that in the past "Americans didn't know the Japanese and the Japanese public didn't know the US."? How might one argue that has changed?
