

Open book and notes Test next Thursday will cover:

*Study for an OPEN book test as much as you would for a CLOSED book test!
So organize all of your materials, scan your notes, briefly revisit the texts.

A. Major Movements in American Literature (stapled handout with pictures)

B. From the Native American Tradition:

“The Sky Tree” and creation myths from other cultures (stapled packet)

C. From the Puritan Era: (pp. 134-135)

“Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God” sermon by Jonathan Edwards
(pp. 152-157 and packet)

D. From the Revolutionary Era:

“Speech to the Virginia Convention” by Patrick Henry

(pp. 260-261 on Persuasive Rhetoric, pp. 262-267, stapled packet, quiz)

“What is an American?” written in 1782

by Michel-Guillaume Jean De Crevecoeur

(pp. 289-294 and close-reading activity)

“What is an American?” written in 2017 by immigration lawyer

I’ll provide copy.

E. From Romanticism and Transcendentalism: (pp. 340-342)

from “Self Reliance” by Ralph Waldo Emerson

(pp. 363-368 and packet)

from “Walden” by Henry David Thoreau

(pp. 380-393 and packet)