

**Front side of card:

**Choose any book you have read so far or are reading.

1. Above the red Line write the Book Title and # of pages

Then

2. —Author's name:

3. —Genre:

4. —Star Rating (1 to 5 stars for recommendation, 5 = the highest)

5. —What kind of reader would enjoy this book? People who like....

6. —Theme is the author's intended message in the story. Often times it reveals something about human nature. Identify one theme for your chosen novel. Use the following format. Write just ONE statement exactly like this. Underline the key elements you add.

"The _____ by _____ is about _____ and reveals
(genre + title) (Author) (Topic/abstract concept)

_____
(opinion statement about topic & universality)

For example: The historical novel Night by Elie Wiesel is about the atrocities of the Holocaust and reveals that the human spirit can prevail in difficult situations.

The historical fiction novel To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee is about white children growing in the South and reveals the importance of tolerance toward others; that people--and appearances--aren't always what they seem; that hypocrisy and racism are a fact of life that are best observed and not practiced; and that justice is not always served.

**Back side of card:

Your name

