Job Shadow Journal

On November 17, 2016, I job shadowed under Bill Marketon at Sheehan Mack Sales & Equipment from 9:00a.m. until 11:00a.m. ~~My job shadow was for the purpose of learning more about the accounting career. Sheehan is located in Sioux Falls on 60th Street, so it was conveniently not very far of a drive.~~ <sup>in Sioux Falls on 60th Street</sup> ~~My job shadow was for the purpose of learning more about the accounting career. Sheehan is located in Sioux Falls on 60th Street, so it was conveniently not very far of a drive.~~ <sup>tremendously remarkably they directed</sup> ~~It was instructed to dress "business casual," and to park in their parking lot, but to not block any truck entrances.~~ <sup>As for dressing and parking instructions,</sup>

As I walked in the building that day, the staff ~~was~~ <sup>behaved in a</sup> friendly and led me to ~~where~~ Mr. Marketon's office. ~~When I entered his office, he greeted me and invited me to sit down.~~ <sup>When</sup> ~~We talked for a while about accounting and what he deals with. One of the main points was the difference between public and private accounting. He does private accounting, so I still need to learn about public accounting.~~ <sup>on a day-to-day basis</sup> ~~We also talked about my future, such as which college I should go to. He recommended going to a place that not everyone goes to so that you're not surrounded by everyone that you know. This would allow you to meet new people and network. He also told me about how his daughter, who also went to West Central, currently attends Mount Marty; He likes that she is going there because it is smaller. He also recommended that I study very hard for my ACT because I can get very good scholarships if I~~ <sup>dealt with</sup> <sup>Marketon's job is considered</sup> <sup>he does</sup> <sup>have yet much</sup> <sup>Another thing we</sup> <sup>attend</sup> <sup>was</sup> <sup>Not being surrounded by people you already know and are comfortable with is another</sup> <sup>Branching out</sup> <sup>Plan</sup> <sup>they</sup> <sup>Marketon recommended.</sup> <sup>marvelous</sup> <sup>fantastic</sup> <sup>excellent</sup>
